Open to all undergraduates, this class introduces students to the major artistic achievements of nineteenth-century Europe, with a special emphasis on the art of England, France, and Germany.